

Lets make marks together

Did you know?...

- You can use a paintbrush and water to make marks outside
- You can use a stick to create marks in the sand at the beach
- You can press objects into playdough to make marks too

Mark making is the beginning of a child's journey to writing and is an important step in a child's development. It also helps with fine and gross motor skills

